Obituary.
MRS. AMERICUS D. FRISBIE.
Etta, wife of Americus D. Frisbie, of Greene died Thursday, Sept. 24, at her home in that township aged about twenty nine years. She was the oldest daughter of Silas J. Dickerson and is survived by her husband and three children the eldest being only five years and the youngest an infant. She was a most estimable woman, and her loss is not only a sad bereavement to her devoted husband, but irreparable to the little children left at such tender years without the loving care and gentle guidance which only a mother's hand and heart can bestow. The funeral took place at Hemlock Grove Church on Sunday, conducted by the Rev. Boyce, and the large concourse of people present attested the respect and esteem in which she was held, and also the heart felt sorrow at her untimely death.
MISS MARY FRISBIE
Miss Mary Frisbie aged about forty years died at Newport, R. I., Monday evening of Heart failure and her remains were brought to Milford Wednesday for interment. Her aged father, Joseph Frisbie, of Milford one sister, Theresa, of Newport, four brothers, Xavier, Alphonse and Philip of Boston and Geo. A. of Milford survive her. Brief services were held here by Rev. Father Trice of St. Patrick's Church.

UNANIMOUS FOR KIRKPATRICK.
The Ex-Attorney General Nominated in the Eighth District.
REPUBLICANS CONFIDENT.
The Split Among the Democrats of the District Makes the Nominee's Election a Certainty.

EASTON, Sept. 28. — The Republican conference of the Eighth Congressional District was held this afternoon in this city, and unanimously chose ex-Attorney General W.
S. Kirkpatrick as the nominee for Congress. The conferees present were: Northampton, R. C. Stewart and H. D. Maxwell, Easton; C. F.
Brown, South Bethlehem; Baxter B. McClure, East Allen; A. C.
Prince, Bethlehem; Willis Howell, Lower Mt. Bethel; C. B. Camden, Bangor, and J. W. Pascoe, South Easton; Carbon, Dr. G. Stewart Kirby, Mauch Chunk; N. M. Bal-light, Lehigh; L. L. Finley, Summit Hill; E. F. Seitz, Bowman-town; Monroe, Dr. T. C. Walton, Stroudsburg; Pike, Ebenezer Warner, Milford. There were a number of Republicans from Monroe and Carbon, as well as Northampton, present. Hon. Ebenezer Warner was selected as chairman; Dr. Walton, of Stroudsburg, and Dr. Kirby, of Mauch Chunk, were the secretaries.

Ex-District Attorney Stewart, of Northampton, nominated Mr. Kirkpatrick. He was sent for, and on appearing before the conference was in support of his action. In a short speech he expressed his thanks to the conference. All the conferees expressed the belief that the outlook could not possibly be more favorable to Judge Kirkpatrick's election.
The Democrats of this district are hopelessly divided and two candidates have been nominated, Hon. J.
J. Hart, the present Congressman, was backed by Monroe and Pike counties, and Northampton and Carbon selected another candidate of their own. This division of the muddled Bryantes makes the Eighth District absolutely sure for Kirkpatrick.

NOTICE.—The annual meeting of the Stockholders of the Forest Lake Association for the purpose of electing officers and transacting such other business as may properly be presented, will be held at the club house of the association in Lackawaxen township, Pike Co., Pa., October 13, 1896, at 10 o'clock A. M.
W. C. DAVIDSON, Clerk.

Ratification Parade.
No one but "Si," the assistant editor of our Bryan cotemporary, could so successfully and unblushingly engineer a ridiculous farce and be proud of it, as that which appeared on our streets last Friday evening, as a presumable parade in honor of his chief's one-legged renomination to Congress. "Si" had so inflated himself with enthusiasm that a base drum roared comfortably on his windy protuberance, as with martial air and military mien he headed a procession of a dozen boys between the ages of 6 and 14 years one of whom carried a transparency with the legend "Harts majority 23,000" more or less. The Congressman was visited at his home by this inspiring array of embryonic voters, that is they may be voters some years hence if Democratic parades pen-nate colic and other things, do not bring them to an untimely and inglorious end. The childish jamboree wound up in a back alley around a beer keg over which two grazing adults zealously presided.
The above are cold facts, and they show the spontaneity and uproarious unanimity with which our citizens attach themselves to the fast fading glory of their highly respected and worthy member from the Eighth. The parade as a whole was a fit subject to be soundly spanked and put to bed after supper, and fittingly symbolized the dignified performances of the coterie of political gamesters who played Mr. Hart as a pawn in their dismantled chess board.

A Pleasant Journey.
Mr. Henry C. Bowen, of Lehman who has been suffering for some time with blood poisoning arising from a severe bite on his hand received while separating two fighting dogs, has with his wife gone to Philadelphia and will enter an institution there to receive massage treatment. While his hand is practically healed yet it is not free from stiffness and after a sojourn there, he will go to the sea shore for a time and will, afterward take a trip to Brazil on a line of steamers controlled by his nephew, Mr. Bolton.
He has our best wishes and hopes that his health which has been considerably impaired by his long suffering will be wholly restored.

McKinley and Hobart Club.
A large attendance gratified the young men who took the initiative steps towards the formation of this club, last Friday evening, and after being called to order, W. A. H. Mitchell was unanimously elected President; John C. Warner, Vice President; Leroy E. Kipp, secretary, and W. T. Struble Treasurer. An executive committee was also appointed. The club starts under very auspicious circumstances, and with a large list of members.

A Jerseyman in Limbo.
Brewster who resides just across the river in Montague was arrested here on Tuesday by Fish Warden Van Gordon and his assistant, for maintaining an eel weir in the Delaware, and in default of bail was locked up. There appears to be a wonderful fascination in obtaining fish contrary to law. Whether the statutes prohibiting weirs are just, reasonable or equitable, is a question which may be discussed without harm, but that any one so long as they are in force would be so foolhardy as to take the chances of a heavy fine or imprisonment demonstrates that some men are more fish hungry than wise.

Swindled Out of Eighty-Five Dollars.
A shrewd swindler giving the name of J. B. Lyon victimized clerk John Wickham of the Fowler House in Port Jervis last Friday by obtaining the cash on a draft for $85 by forging the name of A. S. Quick on it. The man was caught Saturday at Susquehanna where he had gone fully prepared to repeat his scheme, which was to offer a draft in payment of his bill at the hotel receive the balance in money and then light out to fresh fields.

A DEMOCRATIC HARMONY
The Eighth Congressional District Divided.
Two Free Silver Democratic Candidates Named at the Stroudsburg Convention, and Both Expect, of Course, to Be Elected.
An air of mellowness pervaded the conferees gathered Sept. 24, at Stroudsburg, to place in nomination a candidate for this district, which was only the precursor of a storm soon to break and with cyclonic fury rend the conference in twain.
After all the conferees had assembled but before any organization was effected the hall was opened by the presentation of the following resolution, by the well-known Democratic leader, ex-collector of Revenue, Charles B. Staples, Esq., who was one of ex-Senator Shull's conferees from Monroe:
"To the Democratic Congressional conferees of Carbon county and the Democratic Congressional conferees of Northampton county:—We, the undersigned Democratic Congressional conferees of Monroe county, at the instance and request of the majority of Democratic voters of said county, before entering into or taking part in the Democratic Congressional conference, to be held for the Eighth District of Pennsylvania, on this day, believing that the representation of Northampton county in previous Democratic Congressional conferences, under the present apportionment, has been unjust and unfair to other counties, and has given to Northampton a power to control the Congressional nominations, make the following demand:—
"First—Representation in Northampton county in said conference be reduced from five to three.
"Second—That in accordance with time-honored custom of the district, Joseph J. Hart be given the Democratic nomination for his second term. (Signed)
"L. WESTBROOK,
"C. B. STAPLES,
"GEORGE H. RHODES,
"Conferees of Monroe Co.
"We, the Democratic Congressional conferees of Pike county, concur in the above demand.
(Signed), "J. B. WESTBROOK, "GEO. A. SWEPSPISER,
"A. G. ROWLAND."

A suggestion was made that before proceeding to consider the resolution some organization should be made, and it was also objected that the resolution practically named the candidate in advance of any action, and the Northampton and Carbon conferees insisted on proceeding in regular order. Thereupon the Pike and Monroe conferees arose and left the room and convened in an adjoining parlor.
C. L. Hemingway then called the Northampton-Carbon conferees to order, and Frank P. Sharkey, of Mauch Chunk, was elected president, James T. Woodring, of Northampton, and G. W. Mortimer, of Carbon, secretaries. Mortimer in a short speech nominated Laird H.
Barber, who received the entire votes of that part of the conference and was duly declared the nominee.
This resolution was then adopted:
"Resolved, That this is the sense of this Congressional conference that the Democratic party in this district be expected and is hereby instructed to support the candidate of the Democratic party for President and Vice-President nominated at Chicago and L. H. Barber the nominee of Carbon, and when principles enunciated in the Chicago Platform." H. C. Twombler, of Easton, and Dr. Stout, of Bethlehem, were appointed a committee to notify the candidate. Mr. Barber responded with a short speech, in which he declared he would support the Chicago platform and thanked the conferees for the honor bestowed upon him.
The conference adjourned after the following resolutions were adopted:
"Resolved, that when this conference adjourns it is to meet again at some time in the future at the American Hotel, Mauch Chunk." In the meantime the Monroe and Pike conferees had organized by electing Charles B. Staples, of Monroe, President and Geo. A. Swepsiser, of Pike, Secretary.

Joseph J. Hart was at once nominated by Lafayette Westbrook the motion being seconded by Dr. Geo.

H. Rhodes, of Tobyhanna. The nomination was made by acclamation, followed by great cheering.
The conference then adjourned to meet at the call of Chairman Staples. At the close of the Hart convention, the Monroe and Pike supporters gave three more loud cheers for the Pike County Congressman.
The certificates of nomination of the respective candidates were immediately forwarded by messengers to Harrisburg to be filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth, and it is learned that the one of Mr.
Hart was the first filed, and that in addition to a nomination by nomination papers will be made, thus ensuring him a place on the ticket should a decision of the Courts as to the regularity of his certificate be adverse to its validity.

BRIEF MENTION.
—Messies are prevalent in town and many scholars are thereby prevented attending school.
—The Vandermark Lodge I. O. O.
F. had an installation supper last evening in Brown's Hall.
—The largest salaried officer of the great Commonwealth of this State is the Sheriff of Philadelphia.
—Gregory Boss, have repaired Klar's dam so that it will make a pond this winter from which they can cut ice. We understand they contemplate adding this to their living business.
—The papers objecting to the regularity of Mr. Hart's certificate of nomination filed at Harrisburg were served on that gentleman Sept. 30.
Robt. Snodgrass, Esq., is the Attorney for Laird H. Barber.
—Sussex county Democrats made the following nominations last Monday. For Assembly, Sylvester Slater, of Lafayette; Sheriff, J. C. An-dross, of Newton; J. J. Van Sickle of Sanjoston was left for assembly by only 115 votes.
—Conductor Adam Dilger, of Matamoras, met with an accident last Sunday, by which his foot was severely bruised. His train broke in two and in attempting to put on a brake his foot was caught between the running boards.
—The wheelmen, of Middletown, N. Y., will have a large parade in that city Oct. 7. An invitation is extended to wheelmen of other places as it is desired to make the display as fine as possible. Fare for round trip will be one way fare, on the Erie.
—The Philadelphia Press editorially speaking of the situation in the Eighth district pays our present Congressman a compliment in this plain language, "Few men less fit to represent an intelligent constitency than Congressman Hart ever got into the House from this great State."
—Capt. L. Westbrook, whose action, in regard to the effort made by citizens of Pike while he was representative from this County, to compel the rebuilding of the bridge at Matamoras which had been avoided by Jim Fisk's shrewd manipulation, is still so rank an odor in the nostrils of our people, that self acting clothes pins are at a premium when ever his name is mentioned, was a fitting instrument to aid Monroe in administering her dose to Pike in the shape of a Hart.
—Enjoyed an Outing at Brink Pond.
Dr. Wenner and family, Harry Torwilliger, and Miss Margaret Brink enjoyed an outing at Brink Pond, with the Well's campers last Friday. Miss Brink, while fishing in the pond thinking she would not have any luck at all, but the line was cutting the water like fury, and Margaret exclaimed, "I have got hold of a whale." It proved to be a pickarel measuring about 24 inches.

HERMAN PAUL SCHULTZ Arrested in New York Charged with Arson on Complaint of his Son.
The Man Who was Last Week Discharged From Our Jail Now Accused of Murdering His Wife.—Account of the Arrest.
The New York Herald of Wednesday contains a long and circumstantial account of the arrest of Schultz who is charged by his nineteen-year-old son, Charles Edmund Schultz with having been the instigator of several fires in his business places in New York, and also with great cruelty to his wife, threats that he would kill her and the direct accusation that he had done so.
Our readers will recall the story in last week's Press in which the strange circumstance of Schultz being in the room with his wife when she was shot at Wohlfarth's House in Shohola, and claiming not to have heard the shot or known of her death until he was aroused in the morning, the failure of the coroner's jury to find any suspicion against him, and his discharge from custody, was told.
The Herald also repeats this in part, and says the young man knew nothing of these matters until his father returned to New York last Wednesday, when he learned of the sudden and peculiar death of his mother, and knowing the character and instincts of his father from long and bitter experience, he at once decided that his father was guilty, and he says told him so. To this the father responded with a threat that frightened both himself and younger brother so that they have not dared to return home since, but went to Shohola where he has since been investigating the circumstances surrounding the shooting.
In this he was aided by a lawyer of New York, who was at the house when the affair occurred. Returning to New York the young man made the complaint and procured the arrest of his father on the charge of arson.
He alleges that before his father went to Shohola he called where the boy works and asked for his wife's address saying he had received money from Germany and wished to give her some to straighten matters up. The address was refused, but the father exhibited a roll of tissue paper saying it contained money and this is supposed to be the money which he alleges he gave to his wife but which has not been found.
The boy further says that before his father went to Shohola he called on Mrs. Macy, in Brooklyn, and made this threat, "Mrs. Macy, if Liz don't come home with me, I'll shoot her where she is."

To Correspondents.
In all cases the name of the person sending a communication must accompany it to ensure publication.
The name is kept in confidence and is only to insure good faith. This is a rule with Editors, because they are held responsible for their publications, and they must have some guarantee of the credit and bona fides of what they publish as correspondence.
Mr. Bryan's Mental Condition.
The New York Times in a recent issue prints a letter signed "allisnist" which it says was written by a man eminent in his profession, in which letter the writer takes the position that Mr. Bryan is mentally unbalanced. The Times commenting editorially says that his speeches will bear out this view, and that ex-Governor Flower was right both from a financial standpoint and also looking at Mr. Bryan's mental poise, when he stated that Bryan was "unsafe and unsound."
"No, I'm not well enough to run a sewing machine."
"What do you intend doing this afternoon?"
"I believe I'll take a ten mile run on my bicycle."

Mr. Mitchell For Associate Judge.
Hon. Wm. Mitchell, of Milford, who was nominated by the Republican convention without a dissenting voice calls attention in another column to his candidacy. That he would adorn the position, by his character and qualifications, are so well known by the people as to need no emphasis. His location is convenient and he can always be found at his place of business when his services may be required. This fact alone is a strong argument why those desiring to aid in the accommodation of the public should see that he receives their support.

PERSONAL.
Mr. Book removed his family to New York last Monday.
Mabel Armstrong and Kathryn Brookhead are visiting the Reed family in Brooklyn.
E. Warner attended the Congressional Convention at Easton, Monday as a delegate from this county.
T. F. Mertz and wife who have summered at the Gramscott cottage returned home last Saturday.
D. J. Seligman, of the New York Banking House—of Seligman Bros., with his wife, is at the Fauchere Hotel.
D. I. Robert, general passenger agent of the Erie, lies critically ill at his home in Orange, N. J., of appendicitis.
Mrs. Mary Jane DeWitt, (nee Miss Steele) and daughter, Ruth, of Jersey City are visiting her relatives in this place.
Messrs John and Lewis VanAkin, of Lackawaxen, made a pleasant call last Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McGowan.
Hon. Charles H. Winfield, District Attorney, of Hudson county, with his wife was at the Hotel Fauchere several days last week.
Mrs. John Nyce and daughter, Bell, who spent the summer in Port Jervis returned Tuesday to occupy their residence here.
Aaron Courtwright, of Westfall candidate for Representative is looking around for votes, and expects to get his share.
George Weber, formerly Superintendent of the burned Bellevue Hotel, is stopping at the Vandermark Hotel.
Mr. John Ryder's family and a few friends spent yesterday at Brink Pond. A pleasant time was reported and lots of fish caught.
Hon. Dennis McLaughlin and family, who have occupied the Nyce house on Broad street during the summer, departed for their home Tuesday.
Dr. A. E. M. Purdy and R. F. Pur-ry driving through the country with a drag and four handsome horses registered at the Fauchere House last Friday.
Mr. and Mrs. Will Ryder, of Pond Eddy, spent a few days in town last week visiting friends and relatives.
Will is one of the jolliest farmers in Pond Eddy.
Charles Lattimore removed Wednesday from the Cahill house on Broad street to the premises on Catharine street recently vacated by Mr. Book.
W. A. H. Mitchell, Esq., went to Easton, Monday to see how the next Congressman from this district and the Republicans in Northampton felt over the situation.
Mr. John E. Carr, who with his family, has summered in the Mott residence on Broad street also left the same day. The gentlemen drove their horses across the County.
Geo. H. Bortree, Esq., of Greene, candidate for County Commissioner was in Milford Monday attending to business for the Wallenpaupe Lodge I. O. O. F. of which he is a trustee.
Aaron Courtwright, of Westfall announces in another column what is already well known, that he is a candidate for the legislature, and you want to keep your eye on the fact and when you go to the polls vote for him. His election would be highly creditable to the county.
John R. Emery, of the firm of Belding Bros' silk manufacturers, with his wife, spent a week in Milford. The firm with which he is connected is the largest in the County having mills at Rockville, Coun., Northampton, Mass., Montreal, Canada, San Francisco, Cal., and Balding, Mich.
Dr. Leonard Pearson, State Veterinarian, is issuing a bulletin knowing that the annual poultry business of Pennsylvania is twenty-two millions, and of the United States three hundred and fifty millions. More money is spent annually in this country for eggs alone than the en-
